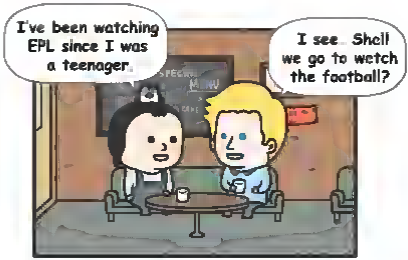
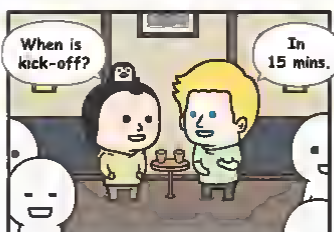
I Love Football

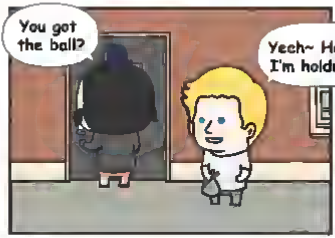
My favourite sport: football!



So, while we were dating,
we often went to see a game.



And now, we still try to watch
big matches as much as possible.



Not only just watching a game,..

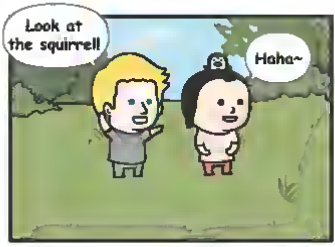
. .we also sometimes play together in the park.

As England is the home country of football, . .

. we can see many people enjoying it whenever we go to the park.

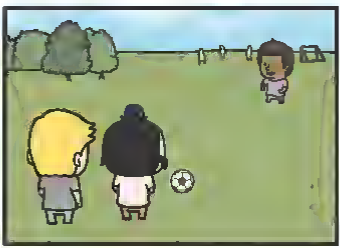
I really feel good when I kick the ball.

One very nice Saturday afternoon



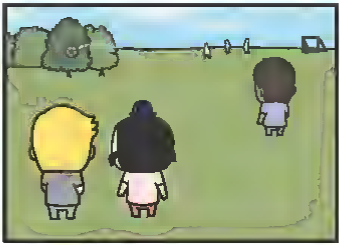
Mev and I went for a walk to the park.

Then, a ball from a group of boys rolled towards me.



I could see that one of the boys was running to get the ball.

So I kicked the ball hard for him



I never can forget
the boy's face that day

Why did you do that?

Totally embarrassed

If you don't leave a comment,

I'm going to stare at you like the boy
